

Pearson Jones study

Overview

Pearson Jones are a third party administrator for the pensions industry. New to the market, they were looking for a pensions administration platform that would be flexible and scalable enough to integrate into their back office client management system. Dunstan Thomas delivered Imago: Administration a pensions administration platform built using C# and SQL Server.

.

.